25th Sunday of Ordinary Time - 20th September 2026

Dear Parishioners,

I've been a little rushed off my feet this week (September is one of the busiest months in the year!), and because of this I've actually pinched the below from the Bishops' Conference.

Let us pray that our homes may become real fortresses of faith, so that we and all those we love may become joyful and enthusiastic missionaries of the Gospel.

God Bless - Fr. Kieren

"Those with long memories will be familiar with Home Mission Sunday. It is the title given to the day we ask our parishes to pray for the work of evangelisation.

A few years ago, this day was re-named Evangelii Gaudium Sunday after Pope Francis's Apostolic Exhortation the 'Joy of the Gospel'. Now, in 2026, we revert to using the original name – Home Mission Sunday.

On Home Mission Sunday, the bishops of England and Wales ask the faithful of our countries to look for ways in which we can all do our part in sharing the beauty and joy of knowing Jesus Christ.

When we speak of 'Home Mission' we are not neglecting our sisters and brothers around the world (World Mission Sunday gives due attention to this important work), but we recognise that we are called to witness to Christ in our homes, at work, in our friendships and in every aspect of our daily life.

Being part of the family of God means we should feel 'at home' but this also challenges us to be missionary disciples in England and Wales so that we can make a home for all who hunger and thirst for the God who loves them and wants them to come home to him."
