

GCSE History

Course Content:

- Crime and Punishment in Britain from the year 1000 to the present.
- The Tudors featuring life under Queen Elizabeth.
America under British rule, 1713-1783, empire and revolution.
- Life in Germany, 1918-1939, including what life was like in Germany when Hitler was in charge.

Skills needed and developed:

- Reading and writing in detail
- Analysing sources
- Developing an argument
- Independent research

Assessment Methods:

Three exams:

- Crime and Punishment in Britain from the year 1000 to the present.
- The Tudors featuring life under Queen Elizabeth.
America under British rule, 1713-1783, empire and revolution.
- Life in Germany, 1918-1939, including what life was like in Germany when Hitler was in charge.

Qualification gained at completion of the course:

GCSE History at grade 1 – 9.

Possible Pathways and Careers:

Law, teacher, professor, the media, researcher, author.