11th November 2021

Dear Parents/Carers,

I hope this letter finds you and your family well. We held a minute's silence at 11am this morning to remember all those who lost their lives in conflict. This was in partnership with Mr Giblin's assemblies this week which focused on World War I. The students, as always, conducted themselves with respect and dignity.

Tomorrow is an INSET Day for staff and students should remain at home. As I'm sure you will already be aware, Friday 3rd December is being taken in lieu of the extra Bank Holiday for the Queen's Platinum Jubilee. Students and staff will not be in school that day.

Next week is 'Anti-Bullying Week', with the theme of 'One Kind Word'. Kindness is more important today than it has ever been. The isolation of the last year has underlined how little acts of consideration can break down barriers and brighten the lives of the people around us. As well as highlighting the importance of eradicating bullying through assemblies, on Monday 15th November, we will be participating in 'Odd Socks Day', all students have to do is wear odd socks – the brighter the better!

The student-parent-school relationship is incredibly important to us and we are always looking at ways in which we can improve the experiences of our students. A very useful source of information for us is Ofsted's Parent View. Since we academized and are legally a new school, our previous information has been removed. I would be very grateful if you could complete the survey at your earliest convenience so that we can use your views to take appropriate action wherever needed. Further information about Parent View can be found overleaf.

Thank you in advance for your continued support.

With kind regards,

Mrs Wright - Headteacher
