

May 2022

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the post of Teacher of MFL at St Antony's Roman Catholic School. I have provided below further details below which I hope will provide you with ample information about the post. Please see our website for details of the school and visit our Facebook and Instagram pages for the most up-to-date news and information. We are seeking to appoint an outstanding colleague who can teach at both Key Stage 3 and 4 in this very effective department. The starting date is 1st September 2022.

The Department

The MFL Department at St Antony's Roman Catholic School is a small team of two dedicated and experienced teachers. We work creatively and collaboratively, and we aim to achieve the highest standards for all our students. We teach French to GCSE, and from September 2022 we will be introducing Spanish to the curriculum.

We are well-equipped and well-organised, have a wealth of co-ordinated learning resources at our disposal as well as a language lab. At KS3 we follow a SOL that maps the skills and knowledge from the AQA GCSE specification, and we also use Studio Fr. At KS4, students follow the AQA GCSE specification. In recent years we have significantly improved our outcomes for GCSE pupils, and we are also striving to increase the uptake of languages in the school.

Safeguarding

St Antony's Roman Catholic School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment.

Applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS). Successful applicants will be asked to complete and return a 'DBS Application Form' for which ID should be provided at interview stage.

Candidates should be aware that all posts in school involve some degree of responsibility for safeguarding children, although the extent of that responsibility will vary according to the nature of the post. If you are currently working with children, on either a paid or voluntary basis, your current employer will be asked about disciplinary offences, including disciplinary offences related to children or young persons (whether the disciplinary sanction is current or time expired), and whether you have been the subject of any child protection allegations or concerns and if so the outcome of any enquiry or disciplinary procedure. If you are not currently working with children but have done so in the past, that previous employer will be asked about those issues. Where neither your current nor previous employment has involved working with children, your current employer will still be asked about your suitability to work with children, although he/she may, where
