Who?	What's the story?
Assemblies
This week	It's National Careers Week, an opportunity to explore potential steps after St Antony's, preparing for life in the wider world. This has included a Y9 presentation from a 6th Form College and real-life work experiences from people in business for Y10, including 1 of our parents. We're very grateful to have them share their expertise and time with our students.
Last week	Assemblies focused on equity, and our responsibility to challenge misogynistic language and sexual harassment #respect #nobystanders

International Women's Day 2023

The answers:

Women account for over 66% of all the work done in the world.

Women do over 66% of the work in the world, and but earn 10% of the total income.

Women only own 1% of the world's property.

Each year 70 million girls are deprived of a basic education. (That's more than the ENTIRE population of the UK)
