

September 2024

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the post of Teacher of Religious Education at St Antony's Roman Catholic School. I have provided below further details which I hope will provide you with ample information about the post. Please see our website for details of the school and visit our Facebook and Instagram pages for the most up-to-date news and information. We are seeking to appoint an outstanding colleague who can teach at both Key Stage 3 and 4 in this very effective department. In addition, the post is open to both NQTs and experienced teachers. The role is a fixed term maternity appointment commencing 4th November 2024 until July 2025.

The School

St Antony's Roman Catholic School is under new leadership and embarking on an exciting new stage of the school's journey, St Antony's is a great place to work. Enhancing pupils' lives and experiences through a carefully-planned and knowledge-rich curriculum is at the core of everything we do, as we aim to empower confident young people and leaders of the future.

St Antony's is warm and friendly and staff are very supportive of each other. Since 2017, pupil numbers have grown considerably from 450 to a capacity figure of 700 this year. We are over-subscribed and are now the number one choice for many families in our area. Improvements have been made in all areas over the last few years and continue to do so.

The Department

If you are successful in your application, you shall be joining an experienced team who have helped to move this subject significantly forward in the last few years. The department is friendly and collegiate, and enjoys some of the best GCSE results within Salford diocese. Our RE team have developed resources over a number of years and there is collective desire to buy into the school's aim of preparing our children for life post-16.

Application process

I hope that the information that has been provided here, and on our website has hooked your interest and I look forward to hearing from you. Should you wish to meet with me prior to applying I should be delighted to do so. Please contact school via email on head@st-antony.com to arrange a mutually convenient time.
