

GCSE Business

Course Content:

Business Studies is one of the most international studies subjects in the world, due to how broad the subject is. As a broad subject in the social sciences, Business Studies opens the study field to a focus of specialties such as accountancy, finance, organisation, human resources management and marketing.

Skills needed and developed:

- The recall of knowledge
- Maths skills including analysing and evaluating data
- The use of business vocabulary and applying it to case studies
- Developing, IT, communication, teamwork, literacy, numeracy and research skills

Assessment Methods:

In Business at St. Antony's we will follow the GCSE (9-1).

The course is examined via two examinations at the end of Year 11.

There is no coursework element in the assessment of GCSE Business.

Qualification gained at completion of the course:

GCSE grade 9-1

Possible Pathways and Careers:

Business GCSE can lead to a range of A-Levels: Business, Economics, Accounting. A range of Apprenticeships. A range of University degrees and jobs in Accountancy, Marketing, Economics, Human Resources, Law etc.