

GCSE French

Course Content:

Multilingualism leads to higher levels of social initiative, open-mindedness and flexibility. French is a fast growing; global language present is all continents. It really is important that you learn to communicate with people no matter where they are from. GCSE French gives you the opportunity to further develop your language skills across a range of themes as outlined below:

Theme 1: People and lifestyle

Theme 2: Popular culture

Theme 3: Communication and the world around us

Skills needed and developed:

- Have a good KS3 French foundation
- Be a good listener, have accuracy in your writing and good organisational skills.
- Be committed to working hard to achieve your best outcomes.
- You will develop communication skills, listening skills, and writing skills, improve confidence and self-esteem and many other transferable skills which will equip you for the work place.

Assessment Methods:

You will be assessed in all 4 skill areas:

1. Listening: exam at the end of Year 11. 25%
2. Reading: exam at the end of Year 11. 25%
3. Speaking: exam at the end of Year 11. 25%
4. Writing: exam at the end of Year 11. 25%

Qualification gained at completion of the course:

GCSE French at grade 9-1.

Exam Board: AQA

Possible Pathways and Careers:

Learning a language at GCSE opens door to further and higher education. It compliments a range of other subjects and can lead to careers in; travel and tourism; government, politics and intelligence; media, publishing and journalism; sales, purchasing and logistics. You could also work in education, fashion or law.