Palm Sunday—HOLY WEEK - 13th April 2025

Dear Parishioners,

And so we begin the week that we call Holy.

In this week in which we actively participate (not merely commemorate) in the act of Salvation as God reveals to us His true Passion for you and me.

It is not just a fascinating week as we bear witness to the origin of our Catholic faith, it is a rather a redemptive as we walk, stumble, deny and eat with the Lord; it is week in which betray, spit spittle, and crucify the One who only days before we welcomed as Saviour and King.

It is the week in which we stand silent beside a new tomb, as we watch a body wrapped and laid to rest.

It is the week from which all history and time points to and flows from; it is the week that transforms our fallen humanity as God picks us up and reconciles all things to Himself.

THIS IS THE WEEK!

God Bless you all.

Fr. Kieren

The Sacred Triduum:

Why we celebrate - A Journey to the Heart of the Catholic Faith

The Sacred Triduum is the core of the Catholic faith, the holiest moment of the liturgical year, when the Church commemorates the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ. These three days—Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday—are not merely a series of ancient rituals, but an invitation to immerse ourselves in the deepest mystery of our salvation. In a world that often seems distant from the transcendent, the Sacred Triduum reminds us that God's love is as real today as it was two thousand years ago.

The Sacred Triduum has its roots in the very life of Jesus and in the early Christian communities.

From the first centuries, Christians began to celebrate in a special way the final days of Christ's earthly life. Saint Augustine, in the 4th century, already spoke of the Triduum as a sacred time in which "Christ suffered, rested in the tomb, and rose again."

Holy Thursday: The Sacred Triduum begins with the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday. This day commemorates the Last Supper, where Jesus instituted the Eucharist and the Priesthood. It is a moment of profound gratitude and awe: in the humility of bread and wine, Christ becomes truly and substantially present. Holy Thursday also invites us to reflect on humble service, represented in the washing of the feet. In a world marked by competition and selfishness, this gesture of Jesus reminds us that true greatness lies in loving and serving others.

Good Friday: The Church falls silent, and the faithful unite themselves to Christ in His Passion. The liturgy of this day is austere but deeply moving: the Passion according to Saint John is proclaimed, the Cross is venerated, and Communion is received with hosts consecrated the night before. Good Friday challenges us to face human suffering head-on and to find in the Cross of Christ a profound meaning for our own pain. In a world that often seeks to avoid suffering at all costs, the Cross teaches us that the greatest love is to give one's life for others.

Holy Saturday: The Easter Vigil: This celebration begins in darkness, symbolising chaos and sin, but is soon illuminated by the new fire and the singing of the "Exsultet," which proclaims Christ's victory over death. The Easter Vigil is a journey through salvation history, from Creation to the Resurrection. It is a reminder that, despite the darkness that may surround us, the light of Christ is stronger. The Vigil reminds us that, although evil may seem to have the last word, Christ's Resurrection assures us that love and life will triumph. Now more than ever, we need to live the Sacred Triduum not as mere spectators, but as active participants in the mystery of our redemption.

This means bringing the selfless love of Holy Thursday, the compassion of Good Friday, and the hope of Holy Saturday into our families, communities, and societies.

The Sacred Triduum is not just a remembrance of the past, but a living reality that transforms us here and now. It is an invitation to enter into the mystery of Christ, to die with Him so as to rise to new life. I invite you to let the liturgy speak to you, let the sacred gestures move you, and let the Word of God transform you.

In these three holy days, heaven touches earth, and we are invited to be part of this story of eternal love.

DIOCESAN SYNOD FROM BISHOP JOHN I am grateful for the positive discernment in our Diocesan Synod, which produced valuable recommendations for the future of our Diocese. Mgr John Dale has accepted the role of Episcopal Vicar for Synodality, and the implementation work is beginning. Parish Priests have been asked to nominate individuals with expertise in the four recommendation categories: "Community and Outreach," "Leadership and Collaboration," "Spirituality and Formation," and "Young People and Schools," so that we can build a vision and direction, and share best practice, for our future. And for this continuing work, let us pray, "Stay with us, Lord, on our Journey."

BUILDING UPDATE please note that repair work will begin in English Martyrs' Church on 12th May (hopefully for only 2 weeks). This will not affect Sunday Mass (or any booked baptisms), however all weekday Masses during the period of repair will be celebrated at St. Monica's.
