Year 10

Instructions for the week beginning Monday 22nd June 2020

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/articles/z7bmxyc>

You will need the above link for this lesson. Complete the tasks in the lesson. Guidance is given below.

- Essential – Watch the video about how to work out language you are unfamiliar with – write down what these two ways are

Watch the 2nd video that analyses the language used by DH Lawrence – make a list of the words/phrases used and what implications this has on the reader

What are the top tips that are given about your English Language exam

Complete the quiz on SMHW

- Recommended – complete activities 1 and 2

Activity 1 – find the words and phrases in the extract from Frankenstein

Activity 2 – write down the implications they have on the audience

- Challenge – Complete activity 3

Read the extract from The Fall of the House of Usher by Edgar Allan Poe

Identify words/phrases that indicate the mood of the narrator

Write down their implications

Finish by writing an analytical paragraph in response to the question How does the writer use words or phrases to demonstrate the narrator's mood?

- Extra-challenge - at the end of this document you will find a list of words. Write a story that contains as many of these words as you can. Remember to use them for effect.

Aim for two sides of A4 in your writing.

Fantastic Friday – Please email Mrs Wright (f.wright@st-antonys.com) by 12pm on a Friday if you'd like to share some of your best work of the week with her. She'd love to see it!

'It was on a dreary night of November that I beheld the accomplishment of my toils. With an anxiety that almost amounted to agony, collected the instruments of life around me, that I might infuse a spark of being into the lifeless thing that lay at my feet. It was already one in the morning; the rain pattered dismally against the panes, and my candle was nearly burnt out.'

What could the underlined words give the impression of?
